WHO'S WHO #13

GET PSYCHED WITH...

THE PSYCHO...

Jake Riley hates superhumans. A lot... but he's got good reason.

Because for the last several years, Riley has been an agent of SIN (the Super-Intelligence Network). He works hard, but it's a dead-end job and Riley knows it, because all the really good assignments go to the FCOs, the Freelance Costumed Operatives...a.k.a. the Psychos, for their wild, super-powered, and unpredictable — albeit effective — methods.

When Riley runs afoul of SIN, he's targeted by his own agency and, in order to survive, he's forced to become what he most hates... THE PSYCHO. Armed with specially designed body armor that gives him superhuman speed and reflexes, the hunter becomes the hunted... a one-man task force determined to eliminate SIN.

THE PSYCHO is a 3-issue Prestige Format miniseries written by James D. Hudnall and featuring fully-painted art and cover by Daniel Brereton.

Join Jake Riley and GO PSYCHO!

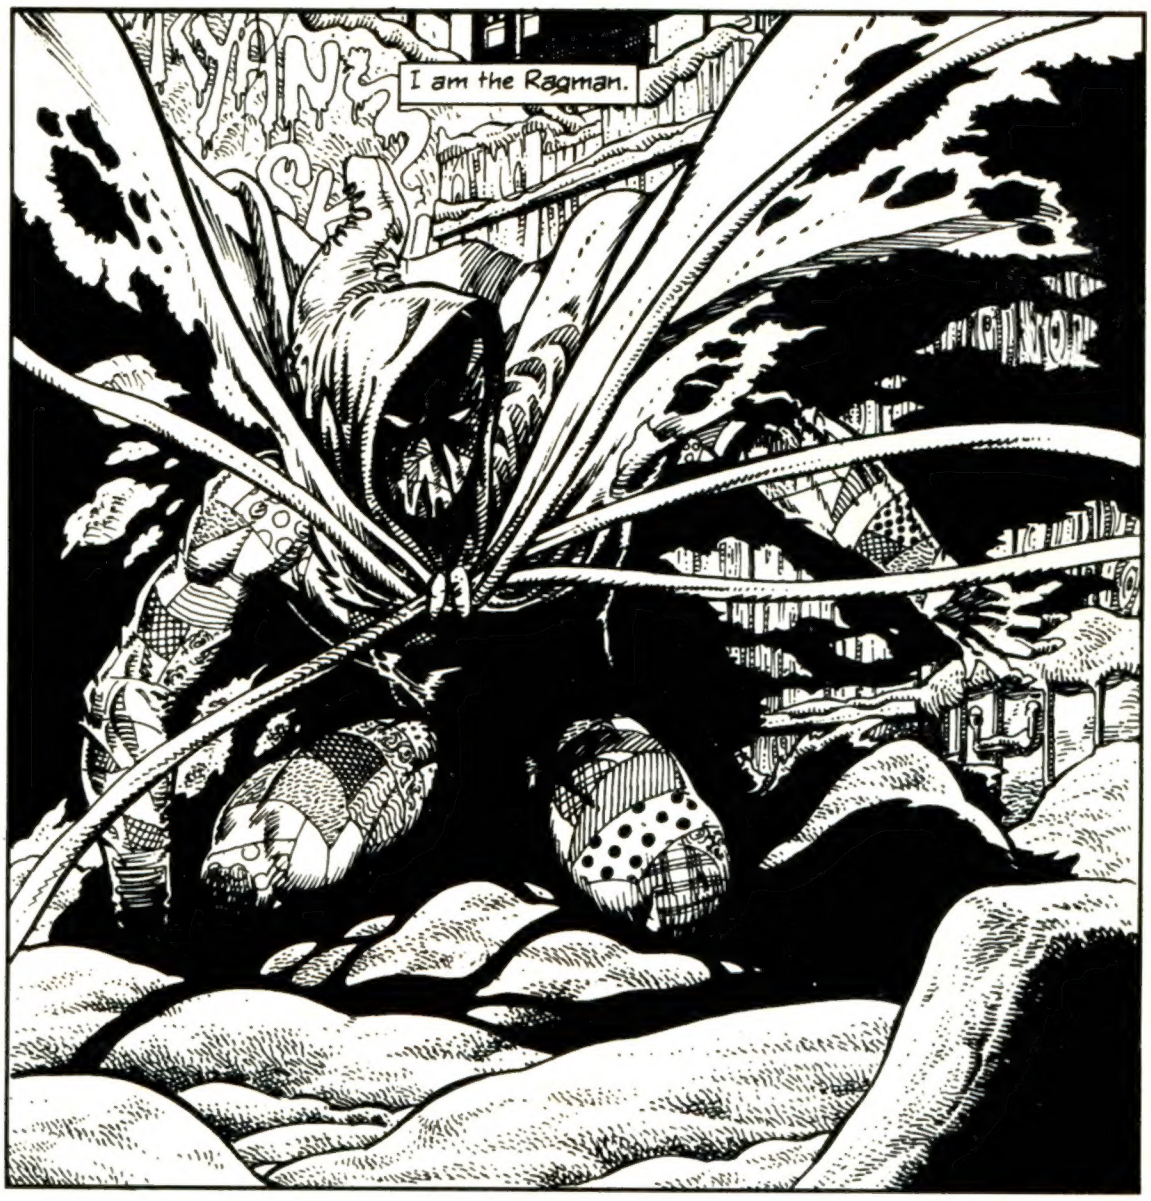
RAGMAN... DEFENDER OF THE GOTHAM GHETTO!

Rory Regan's the son of a pawn shop proprietor... until his father, owner of "Rags 'n' Tatters," is killed.

And then Rory hears mysterious voices which tell him "It's up to you!"... and lead him to a box of living rags—rags that are drawn to evil! Donning these rags, Rory becomes the RAGMAN, the defender of a Gotham City neighborhood drained of hope... and beset by the evil force of the Golem! Of course, any confrontation set in Gotham is certain to attract the attention of a certain Darknight Detective... and even he has a lesson to learn about the nature of evil. And heroism.

RAGMAN (who was created in 1976 by Robert Kanigher and Joe Kubert) is an 8-issue New Format miniseries, plotted by Keith Giffen, scripted by Robert Loren Fleming, and illustrated by Pat Broderick.

RAGMAN. A tale of evil... and the hope of heroism!



ARMAGEDDON 2001... THE END IS NEAR!

Presenting the final four chapters of the incredible ARMAGEDDON 2001 saga and Waverider's search for the hero of today who will become the tyrannical Monarch of the 21st Century!

The first chapter of the month occurs in NEW TITANS ANNUAL #7, as Nightwing searches for the original team members captured a decade before by the Wildebeest Society. Only now he faces a new threat in Lord Chaos, a man with ties to the Titans' past. So Nightwing finds help from the all-new Teen Titans, in a story by Marv Wolfman, Tom Grindberg, Al Vey, Will Blyberg, and Ian Akin.

Then, in ADVENTURES OF SUPERMAN ANNUAL #3, Superman's third possible future is explored as the Man of Steel, distraught over the deaths of Lois and their unborn child, leaves Earth forever and meets Maxima, the warrior woman whose influence Waverider believes could lead to Superman's becoming Monarch. The story is by Louise Simonson, Bryan Hitch, Joe Rubinstein, and Jim Sanders.

In DETECTIVE COMICS ANNUAL #4, Waverider takes another look into Batman's future and finds a Dark Knight crippled after an encounter by Rā's al Ghūl... but still forced to come out of retirement after the murder of Tim Drake, who followed in his footsteps. The story is by Louise Simonson, with art by Tom Grindberg.

Finally, in JUSTICE LEAGUE EUROPE ANNUAL #2, Waverider touches members of the JLE and is propelled, not ten years into the future, but throughout the various levels of time, in a story by Keith Giffen, Gerard Jones, Linda Medley, Marshall Rogers, Ty Templeton, Curt Swan, Bruce Patterson, John Beatty, and Mark Nelson.

And after that?

The ultimate answer you've all been waiting for... the identity of Monarch, to be revealed next month in ARMAGEDDON 2001 #2!

Be there!

BATMAN: HOLY TERROR...

A DARK KNIGHT TALE OF "ELSEWORLDS"

BATMAN: GOTHAM BY GASLIGHT looked at the concept of an alternate-reality Batman in some past era.

Now the Dark Knight is part of an alternate present, a glimpse at a Batman who might be on "Elseworlds," a series that places Batman and other DC characters in different settings and eras, outside the regular continuity of the DC Universe.

BATMAN: HOLY TERROR places Batman on an Earth in which church and state are one and the same. In this vaguely familiar yet unsettling version of our today, the young, orphaned Bruce Wayne is set to enter the priesthood... until he learns that his parents were killed not in some random street mugging, but as part of a government-sanctioned execution.

That's when Bruce Wayne's life changes and this world's Batman is born as a weapon of vengeance!

BATMAN: HOLY TERROR, a Prestige Format one-shot, is written by Alan Brennert and features art and cover by Norm Breyfogle.

They killed his parents... now they'll have to face BATMAN: HOLY TERROR!
